Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Equity Repurchase Agreement

On September 9, 2019, Baker Hughes, a GE company (the "Company") and Baker Hughes, a GE company, LLC ("BHGE LLC") entered into an agreement with General Electric Company ("GE") and GE Oil & Gas US Holdings I, Inc. (together with GE, the "GE Parties") related to the repurchase of the Company's Class B common stock, par value $0.0001 per share ("Class B common stock"), and the corresponding BHGE LLC common units (the "Agreement").

Under the terms of the Agreement, the Company will repurchase from the GE Parties, in a privately negotiated transaction, $250,000,000 of shares of the Company's Class B common stock, together with an equal number of associated BHGE LLC common units ("LLC Units"), at a price equal to the price per share at which certain underwriters will purchase shares of the Class A common stock from certain GE Parties in the Offering. The Offering is not conditioned upon the completion of the share repurchase, but the share repurchase is conditioned upon the completion of the Offering and will be completed immediately following the Offering.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is not a complete description thereof and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 10, 2019, the Company issued a press release announcing the offering by GE of 105 million shares of Class A common stock of the Company (the "Offering"). The underwriters will have the option to purchase within 30 days from the date of the prospectus supplement relating to the Offering up to an additional 15.75 million shares of Class A common stock from GE. In connection with the Offering, the Company also announced that, while it has not completed its third quarter, given recent geopolitical and industry driven dynamics, timing of certain customer and supply chain driven events may modestly impact its third quarter results and shift into the fourth quarter. In connection with this offering and within the 20-40 basis point negative impact of the GE separation previously outlined, the Company expects to begin to incur increased separation expenses. Such expectations are forward looking, and no undue reliance should be placed on these expectations. See "Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements."

A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

This report shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy the securities described herein, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to the registration or qualification under the securities law of any such jurisdiction.

(collectively, together with GE, the “selling stockholders”) has commenced a secondary offering (the “offering”) of 105 million shares of BHGE Class A common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Class A common stock”). The underwriters will have a 30-day option to purchase up to an additional 15.75 million shares of Class A common stock from the selling stockholders. BHGE is not offering any shares of Class A common stock in the offering and will not receive any proceeds from the sale of shares in the offering.

In addition, BHGE announced that it has agreed to repurchase (the “share repurchase”) from one or more of GE and its affiliates, in a privately negotiated transaction, $250,000,000 of shares of BHGE Class B common stock, par value $0.0001 per share (the “Class B common stock”), together with an equal number of associated membership interests of Baker Hughes, a GE company, LLC (the “LLC units”) at a price equal to the price per share at which the underwriters will purchase shares of Class A common stock from the selling stockholders in the offering.
